[CATALOGUE 2007]

WELCOME to our new catalogue. While we hope you will find it easy to use, we would be grateful for any feedback (positive or negative!) that might help make the next version even more user-friendly.

The information is given in abbreviated format, including the Prima la musica! code for each product, the scoring, and the cost – the first entry is the price of a complete performing set (see the website for details) while the figure in brackets is for a single score, purchased separately. Extra scores and parts can be supplied at reduced prices, and many of the larger items also include vocal scores. If you are planning a performance that requires extras, please contact us by email and we can make arrangements.

We welcome suggestions for pieces that you would like to see published. Since this catalogue was last printed, we have added more than 100 titles, including contributions from Dennis Collins (17th-century Italian church music and madrigals), Nigel Springthorpe (who is researching the history of the piano concerto, and the early development of the symphony) and new editions by William Kempster, Director of Choral Activities at the University of New Hampshire and Director of the de la Rue ensemble, of motets by de la Rue and Josquin, with a projected series that will also include Clemens non Papa and Gombert, which represents a most welcome expansion of our catalogue into the Renaissance period. Tarsi-Mimi Loustas wrote a Cambridge Ph.D. on music in the English theatre around the beginning of the 18th century, and is editing of some of the surviving repertoire. Paul Rice will complement this with editions of music from later productions. We have just started three new series: Kim Patrick Clow will publish the complete Sinfonias of the Darmstadt Kapellmeister Christoph Graupner; Lars Berglund, who penned the definitive monograph on the composer, has agreed to co-operate with us on “The Complete Works of Christian Geist” (which will also be recorded by Hungaroton!), while Julianne Peetz and Gottfried Gille (both of whom wrote doctoral theses on the man and his music) will join us in producing “The Complete Works of David Pohle”.

Plans for 2008 include yet another new direction for the company – performing editions of operas! This will be a joint venture with Bampton Opera and their 2008 production will be Paer’s Leonora, hopefully followed by Naumann’s Aci e Galatea (2009).

Exciting times ahead!
